

Twenty-Sixth Annual Feast of Weeks – 6009/2006

“The Seven Last Plagues,” Part 8

Shalom Aleichem! Praise יהוה! Praise בן יהוה! I stand here before you giving all of my conscious and heartfelt glorification, deification, and veneration to the Most High God יהוה. For it is our God, יהוה, who controls and manipulates all things in His universe which are seen and unseen, known and unknown, revealed or hidden. Moreover, I testify to you today that בן יהוה is the only begotten Son of יהוה, who has come through time this day to be the Savior and Redeemer of His lost sheep and the world. Praise יהוה!

Those of us who are present right now are just a small portion of the great multitude of people who believe in and put their trust in the Lord, יהוה. Therefore, O praise the Lord, יהוה, all ye nations: praise Him, all ye people. For His merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the Lord, יהוה, endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord, יהוה. Ye that fear the Lord, יהוה, praise Him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify Him; and fear Him, all ye the seed of Israel. Rejoice in the Lord, יהוה, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright. For blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, יהוה; and the people whom He hath chosen for His own inheritance. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

Shalom and welcome to our Twenty-Sixth Annual Feast of Weeks in the solar year of our Lord and Savior, יהוה בן יהוה, 6009. This location, the Hutchinson Island Marriott Beach Resort and Marina is the place where the Lord, יהוה, has chosen to place His superlative and matchless name. Knowing this, we are all blessed as we attend this feast and adhere to the sacred and holy laws of our God, יהוה, found in the King James Version of the Bible.

Thusly, the Book of Deuteronomy, Chapter 16, verses 10 and 11 state – thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord, יהוה, thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord, יהוה, thy God, according as the Lord, יהוה, thy God hath blessed thee. And thou shalt rejoice before the Lord, יהוה, thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord, יהוה, thy God hath chosen to place His name there. Praise יהוה!

Again, welcome to our seminar discussion for today entitled, “The Seven Last Plagues,” Part 8. In this presentation, we shall endeavor to explain and give the details concerning the outcome and end result that shall be accomplished by the fifth angel of יהוה pouring out his vial of the wrath of יהוה which is full of the fifth of the seven last plagues. But first, before move on to uncover this revelation, let us summarize and refresh our memories with what we disclosed and elucidated on in our last seminar.

Our primary study and examination was founded upon the foundation research Scripture found in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 8, which reads:

“And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.”

This Verse strongly established the repercussions that shall come about in the aftermath of the pouring out of the fourth plague. We learned that the fourth angel in the series of seven angels of יהוה shall execute this plague and that he shall be empowered to scorch men with fire.

In our last session, we used our previously accepted definitions of the words pour, his, and vial to make the determination that he shall gush out, run greedily out, spread abroad, spread forth, and spill the contents of his fourth vial of the wrath of יהוה upon the sun. Even more so, we deduced that this vial is a full and open cup of little depth, which contains the portions or shares of sorrow that shall be easily poured out upon the inhabitants of the earth.

We decoded the Scripture to reveal that word sun in Greek pronounced hay-lee-os, led us to the conclusion that the fourth angel of יהוה shall use the sun to plague the inhabitants of the earth by causing it to emit rays of heat and energy that shall be a means of destruction, physical misery, and judgment. We also learned that power is the ability to act or produce an effect and it is also the great ability to affect strongly. Furthermore, we found that to give is to put into the possession of another for his or her use as a trust or responsibility and usually for an expressed reason.

Additionally, we affirmed that to “... scorch men with fire ...” directed us to the comprehension that the fourth angel of יהוה shall have the great ability to burn and strike certain men with the sun’s heat as retribution for their sins and transgression of the laws of יהוה. Even more so, this angel will be able to direct the sun to burn and char the skin of some particular human beings, men and women, persons and people. Praise יהוה!

It was made apparent that the fourth angel of יהוה shall have the ability to direct the ultraviolet rays of the sun straight through the earth's atmosphere at units much higher and greater than normal or safe. These ultraviolet rays shall be so strong that they will be able to burn and char the skin of people so badly that it will result in them developing skin cancer over a shorter time-span than usually believed. This destruction of skin tissue and cells shall be a source of physical misery for its recipients and shall be the judgment wreaked upon certain men and women as retribution for their sin. Their skin cancer shall be so terrible that it will feel like fire.

Fire was substantiated as the Hebrew word pur which is used of the fire of divine judgment upon the rejecters of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה. It also refers to the 'fire' of Hell to be endured by the ungodly hereafter. Thus, we determined that severe cases of skin cancer shall come upon and affect all people of the earth who reject יהוה בן יהוה as the Christ and the Messiah of the world. These wicked men shall endure and suffer the great distress of Hell on earth and will be the same ungodly persons who shall suffer in Hell in the hereafter. Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 9 clarifies:

“And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, יהוה, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give Him glory.”

Praise יהוה! Presently, we are ready to commence on our inquiry and investigation for today. We shall accomplish our task once again by making use of the divine Ten-Step Study Method as taught to us by יהוה בן יהוה. This will assist us as we prove beyond a reasonable doubt the predicaments that shall arise after the unleashing of the fifth of the seven last plagues.

In order to set the stage for our study we must read our foundation Scripture, Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10 which plainly delineates who shall possess the fifth plague of יהוה, along with who it shall be poured out and visited upon. Thus, let us read Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10:

“And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,”

We shall start our deciphering by making sense of the opening phrase from this Scripture which reads, “And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast;...”

The number word fifth as defined in the Random House Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, is “the fifth member of a series.” Henceforth, it is simple to recognize that the angel at the forefront of this perusal of knowledge is the fifth member in the series of seven angels who possess the seven last plagues.

On the repeatedly reliable source of The New Strong's Expanded Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, Red Letter Edition, copyright 2001, on page 2 of the Greek dictionary, an angel is classified under the reference number 32, pronounced ang'-el-os. Angelos means “a messenger sent by God יהוה and most frequently refers to an order of created beings superior to men belonging to Heaven and to God, יהוה, and engaged in His service.”

Furthermore, angel is also located in The New Strong's Expanded Concordance of the Bible, on page 158 of the Hebrew dictionary, reference number 4397, from right to left as מלאך (Mem, Lamed, Aleph, Chaf-Sofet), pronounced mahl-ahk. Mahlahk means “a messenger specifically of God, יהוה, that is, also a prophet.” While a prophet is “one regarded as the final authoritative revealer of the will of God יהוה”; to reveal is to “make manifest.”

These combined meanings leave us with the understanding that the person in our foundation research Scripture is the fifth member in the series of seven angels who has the fifth plague of יהוה in his possession. This fifth angel identified in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10, is a messenger sent by God יהוה and is a member of the order of created beings that are superior to men. These beings not only belong to Heaven and God, יהוה, but they are also actively engaged in His service. Therefore, this fifth angel is to be regarded as one of the seven final authoritative prophets who shall make manifest the expressed and divine will of God יהוה. Praise יהוה!

Moving steadily along we come to the words pour out which are unearthed from the e-Sword, Computer Software, copyright 2000-2004, reference number 8210 of the Hebrew dictionary, spelled from right to left שפך (Shin, Fey, Chaf-Sofet), pronounced shah-fahk. Shaphak means “to spill forth and (figuratively) to expend life, soul, money, etc.” Lastly, shaphak means, “intensively to sprawl out.” Henceforth, we can arrive at the logical conclusion that the fifth angel of יהוה shall spill forth his particular plague upon a specific entity, and thereby use up and burn up certain lives, souls, stores of money, etc. Even more so, he shall intensively sprawl out the components of his fifth vial of the wrath of יהוה upon the seat of the beast.

We ascertained for definitive use in three of our last seminars that grammatically, the word his relates to our foundation Scriptures as a possessive adjective showing the possessor of one of the vials of the wrath of יהוה. Given that the word his is used to categorize the superior being in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10, we can certify that he is simply the possessor and carrier of the fifth plague. Additionally, this particular angel shall be the agent and object by which the chief action--the pouring out of the fifth vial of the wrath of יהוה--shall be effectuated and attained.

Continuing with our translation of Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10, we see once again that the Scripture names the object and item that the fifth of the seven last plagues shall be spilled out of as a vial. A vial is established in The New Strong's Expanded Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, on page 263 of the Greek dictionary, number 5357, pronounced in Greek fee-al-ay. A phiale is “a broad shallow cup.”

The American Heritage College Dictionary, Third Edition, copyright 2000, maintains that broad means “full and open.” And shallow from The New Oxford American Dictionary, copyright 2001, on page 1566, means “of little depth.” In our earlier seminars, we concluded these definitions to mean that this full and open cup will be of little depth, which shall allow the contents to pour and spill out easily. Lastly, we must reiterate that a cup from the same aforementioned source is, “one’s portion or share, as of sorrow.”

In accordance with these definitions, we can affirm that the fifth vial, which constitutes the fifth of the seven last plagues of יהיה shall be indisputably and absolutely in the possession of His fifth angel. Secondly, this vial shall be without a doubt full and open with the definite portions and shares of sorrow that shall easily be poured out and spilled upon the seat of the beast as we read in the foundation research Scripture for our current discussion. Praise יהיה!

At this time, we have reached the point at where we must find out what exactly Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 8 is saying by emphasizing that the fifth plague of יהיה shall be poured out upon “... the seat of the beast.” This will help us bring to light the true nature and essence of this plague so that we can be cognizant of its actual ramifications.

Predicated on the accuracy of e-Sword, Computer Software, copyright 2000-2004, in the Greek dictionary, under the reference number 2362, seat is documented as thron'-os. Thronos means “a stately ‘throne’; power.” A state as taken from Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998,

Computer Software, is “the power or authority represented by a body of people politically organized under one government, esp. an independent government, within a territory or territories having definite boundaries.”

In light of these facts, we can see clearly that the fifth of the seven last plagues shall be spilled out upon a stately ‘throne’ that represents a certain power. This power or authority is represented by a body of people politically organized under one government, especially an independent government, within a territory having definite boundaries. Thus, we recognize that we are speaking about the political parties and representatives of a specific government.

With that in mind, we can refer to page 609 of Roget’s 21st Century Thesaurus, Second Edition, copyright 1999, to deduce that a politician is a “person pursuing or occupying elective office.” A politician is also described as a “democrat, lawmaker, and legislator; member of Congress, officeholder, party member, president, republican, senator, speaker, and statesperson.”

These explanations of the word politician verify that the fifth of the seven last plagues shall be executed against a politically organized body of people who are under one independent government. Within this government, there are persons who pursue and occupy elective office. These persons are described as democrats, lawmakers, legislators, members of Congress, officeholders, party members, the president, republicans, senators, speakers, and statespersons. This type of political organization and setup illustrates the type of democratic government that is recognized throughout the world.

Additionally, based on the Random House Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, a seat is labeled as “the office or authority of a king.” And according to The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 627, king is synonymous to “executive” and executive on page 376 means “chief, commander, and president.” Therefore, we further see that the throne or seat we are examining is the executive office or authority of the chief, commander, and president of this specific and independent government.

Our foundation Scripture, Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10, brands the main person in control and in charge of this independent government as the beast. According to the Merriam-Webster's 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software, the is defined as “used as a function word before nouns that designate.” These facts reveal that the beast is one who is designated. Therefore, what does it mean to be designated?

On the authority of The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 282, designate, the present tense word of designated, is equivalent to “commission”; while commission (reference number 771.31), in the Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 861, means the same as to “inaugurate.” Based on the accuracy of these facts, it can be confirmed that to be designated means to be inaugurated. That being the case, “What does inaugurate mean?”

In seeking information from the Encarta World English Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 726, inaugurate means “to install somebody in office with a formal ceremony.” This formal ceremony is called an inauguration. An inauguration, in the same reference source, on page 908, describes “the formal placing of someone into an official position, especially the President of the United States”; and in the Merriam-Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software, the word especially means “in particular.” Owing to these facts, “the” is describing one who has been installed or placed formally into an official position. This one in particular is the PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

With this understanding, it is imperative that we define the word “beast.” Conferring with the Random House Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, a beast denotes a “brute”; while brute in the Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software, is suggestive of “a lout.” In the very same reference source, a lout is “a stupid fellow.” These facts confirm unequivocally that the beast is the President of the United States of America who is characterized as a stupid fellow.

Stupid is recorded in the Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software, as “slow witted; lacking normal intelligence.” It can be ascertained from these facts that the beast, the President of the United States of America, is a fellow who is slow witted and lacking normal intelligence. By definition, the word fellow in the New Oxford American Dictionary, copyright 2001, Computer Software, identifies with “a member of a learned society”; while learned in the New Oxford American Thesaurus, copyright 2000, Computer Software, is synonymous with “esoteric.” In the same reference source, esoteric means the same as “secret.” Founded upon the solidity of these facts, it can be concluded that even though the beast, the President of the United States of America, is a member of a secret society, he is yet slow witted and lacking normal intelligence.

Hence, it is appropriate to define the word “fellow” from yet another perspective. The New Oxford American Dictionary, copyright 2001, Computer Software, defines fellow as “a boy”; while the word boy, in the same reference source, is descriptive of “junior,” and junior is used “(in names) denoting the younger of two who have the same name in a family, esp. a son as distinct from his father.” Thus far, all of the documentation gathered confirms that the beast, the President of the United States of America, is slow witted and lacking normal intelligence; yet, he is a member of a secret society. In addition, he is also depicted as being the younger of two who have the same name in a family. In other words, he is a son as distinguished from his father.

What is the same name that the son--the President of the United States of America--shares with his father? In pursuit of an answer to this question, another definition of brute--from the original definition of the word beast--is required. The Webster's New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software, describes a brute as a “boor,” and a boor, in the same reference source, is a “rustic.” Rustic, etymologically originates from the word “rural.” In accordance with The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1061, rural is synonymous with “georgic.” In conformity with The American Heritage College Dictionary, Third Edition, copyright 2000, on page 571, georgic derives from the Greek word “geo”; and in The Oxford Dictionary and Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 612, Geo is the abbreviation for “George.”

This irrefutable documentation proves, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the beast--as spoken of in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10--is actually George Walker Bush, the President of the United States of America, who shares the same name as his father, which is George Herbert Walker Bush. George W. Bush is known worldwide as being slow. In fact, he has been labeled as the most unintelligent president of all the American presidents before him. In spite of this, the documentation confirms that he is yet a member of one of the most elite secret societies of all times: Skull and Bones. Considering all of the facts gathered, it can be concluded that “the beast” in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10 is GEORGE W. BUSH, President of the United States of America.

For more evidence that George W. Bush is the beast in our research Scripture, we can refer to the American Heritage Talking Dictionary and Thesaurus, Computer Software, which classifies a beast as someone with “animal nature as opposed to intellect or spirit.” In the Microsoft Encarta Reference Library 2004, copyright 1993-2003, Computer Edition, beast is defined as “the instinctive, irrational, or aggressive part of somebody’s personality.”

Thusly, we can comprehend that the beast--President George W. Bush--is a man who has an animal nature as opposed to intellect or spirit. This proves that he is someone who is not very smart or intellectually inclined; neither is he a spiritual person. He may give the public impression of being spiritual and God-fearing, but he is actually a disbeliever. Moreover, this beast is identifiable in that he uses the instinctive, irrational, or aggressive part of his personality when deciding and enforcing government law.

We can learn the identity of the beast even more by referring to Random House Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, which confirms that a beast is "a cruel, coarse, filthy, or otherwise beastlike person." It goes on to emphasize, "The beast is the Antichrist, Revelation 13:18." Also, the Merriam-Webster's 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, dictates that a beast is "a contemptible person."

Some synonyms for contemptible are "mean, low, unworthy, base, inferior, loathsome, despicable, wretched; shabby, trashy, sleazy, cheap; and finally, despised, lamentable, pitiful, sorry, and petty." These meanings can be located in The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 223.

As a result, of our extensive expounding on the word beast, it is now obvious and plain to see that it describes George W. Bush who is in control of and has the charge of a specific independent government in which he is known as the president. While he has the title of ‘president’, he has neither the intellectual or spiritual inclination nor prowess to sufficiently run or manage his government. Even more so, he is recognizable as the beast because he uses the instinctive, irrational, or aggressive part of his personality when he decides and enforces his governmental law. Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 18 gives us clear confirmation on why this is so:

“Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.”

The beast--President George W. Bush--spoken of in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10, is at the helm of a government from which a politically organized body of people who are under his independent government pursue and occupy elective office. These persons are democrats, lawmakers, legislators, members of Congress, officeholders (i.e. Secretary of State, Secretary of Defense, Attorney General, National Security Advisor, etc.), party members, republicans, senators, speakers, and statespersons. They are the ones who on a daily basis implement and put into operation the façade of functional government portrayed and depicted by the media.

Though this showcase may have been somewhat effective in the past, this is no longer the case. Many people and constituents of this government now perceive and have become aware of the fact that President George W. Bush is about as competent as a fly. He has gained the global reputation for being cruel, coarse, and contemptible. Since he has been in office he has shown himself to be mean, low, unworthy, base, inferior, shabby, trashy, sleazy, cheap, pitiful, sorry, and petty. This is mainly because he did not win his election into office justly or fairly. Currently, while his approval rating is at the lowest it has ever been, most people see him as being loathsome, despicable, wretched, despised, lamentable.

The facts and polls show that the goodwill of the American people toward the President of the United States has been in a steady decline. This is especially due to the war in Iraq, the overwhelming gas prices, the rise of tax and interest rates, a catastrophic economic deficit, immigration reform, and the list goes on. It is no secret that the citizens of this country are totally split in their confidence in the ability and capability of the current U.S. president.

Praise יהוה! So that we understand the full significance of the statements in Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10, we must recognize the grammatical importance of the semicolon that is used after the initial phrase from this Scripture “... And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; ...” According to Punctuation: Plain and Simple, copyright 1997, on page 73, it clarifies “a semicolon is used to join two main ideas when the second main idea functions to explain the first.” Therefore, we see that once we decipher the upcoming phrase it shall serve to explain the circumstances that shall take place next in our foundation Scripture.

Thusly, as a result of receiving the previous understanding in regard to the beast, we can venture on and attempt to verify the particular circumstances that shall be experienced by the beast and his governmental body by way of the fifth of the seven last plagues of יהוה. We shall achieve this by making plain the phrase which states, “... and his kingdom was full of darkness; ...” Seeing as though we have uncovered precisely who the beast is, we can infer and presume that his kingdom is the place where he resides and dwells. Well, the Merriam-Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software, substantiates that a kingdom is “an area in which one holds a preeminent position.” Some synonyms of kingdom are “country, land, nation, and state.”

Henceforth, we can conclude that the kingdom of the beast is the country in which he holds a preeminent position by being the one that is able to exercise full executive and administrative power and authority. The kingdom of the beast is also his land, nation, and state. With this in mind, it is evident that this country, land, nation, or state that is controlled by the beast--President George W. Bush--is the United States of America and is the kingdom that shall be full of darkness as a consequence of the fifth plague of יִהְיֶה.

What does it mean that the kingdom of the beast shall be full of darkness? Let us find out. The word full as confirmed from the Microsoft Encarta Reference Library 2004, copyright 1993-2003, Computer Edition, means, “being at the highest degree or largest extent.” In the Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software, full is “having in it all there is space for; holding or containing as much as possible.”

These definitions assert that the darkness that shall come upon the kingdom of the beast shall be so full that it shall be to the highest degree and largest extent. Darkness shall fill this kingdom to the point that there will be no space for anymore. This kingdom shall have and contain as much darkness as it will be possible to hold.

The Microsoft Encarta Reference Library 2004, copyright 1993-2003, Computer Edition, also explains that full means to be “deeply preoccupied with a large filled agenda, or with some fact or idea to the extent of being unable to think or talk about anything else.” The phrase full of darkness can be documented from The New Strong’s Expanded Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, Red Letter Edition, copyright 2001, on page 229 of the Greek dictionary, under the reference numbers 4655 and 4656, pronounced skot'-os. Skotos means “shadiness, that is, obscurity (literally or figuratively).” Furthermore, skotos describes “intellectual darkness and blindness as the place of punishment.” Metaphorically, it refers to “moral and spiritual darkness or those who are in moral and spiritual darkness.” Lastly, it refers to “evil works and the evil powers that dominate the world.”

Shadiness is the same as “dishonesty, crookedness, underhandedness, shiftiness, deviousness, and dubiousness,” while obscurity is “lightlessness, gloominess, murkiness, cloudiness, and dimness.”

On these accounts, we can validate that the people within kingdom of the beast--the United States of America--shall be deeply preoccupied with a large agenda of shadiness and obscurity. This shadiness and obscurity shall be evident from the highest levels of U.S. government on down to common civilians. The darkness that has overtaken the U.S. government is open and obvious through persistent dishonesty, crookedness, underhandedness, and deviousness. This is apparent right now. It is obvious that persons within the current U.S. government have no light, but are full of gloom, murkiness, cloudiness, and dimness.

We constantly hear news about members of Congress, the House of Representatives, and other lawmakers committing fraud, embezzling funds, taking bribes, receiving illegal contributions and money for campaigns, and other deceitful dealings. In addition, the everyday people of this kingdom have become so full of wicked facts, thoughts, and ideas that lack moral and spiritual understanding that they are to the extent of being unable to think or talk about nothing else. Thus, the moral, spiritual, and intellectual darkness and blindness of the people shall become a place of punishment. On top of all this, the United States of America has become the place where evil works abound and from which evil powers dominate the world.

Let us go to the Word of יהוה--the King James Version of the Holy Bible--to back up all that we have just uncovered. So, let us turn to and read Zephaniah, Chapter 1, verses 14 through 18:

[14] “The great day of the Lord, יְהוָה, is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord, יְהוָה: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

[15] That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,

[16] A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

[17] And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord, יְהוָה: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

[18] Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord, יְהוָה [’s] wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of His jealousy: for He shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.”

Let us read Matthew, Chapter 8, verse 12:

“But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Lastly, let us read Ephesians, Chapter 6, verse 12:

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.”

Praise יְהוָה! We have arrived at the culminating segment of our seminar discussion today in which we shall unveil the last part of our foundation Scripture which states “... and they gnawed their tongues for pain.” Here we can distinguish that the people living in the kingdom of the beast--the United States government along with everyday people--shall be in a state of such moral and spiritual darkness that they shall gnaw their tongues for pain.

The word they according to the Merriam-Webster's 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, is defined as “those ones used as a third person pronoun serving as the plural of he, she, or it or referring to a group of two or more individuals not all of the same sex.” And the American Heritage Talking Dictionary and Thesaurus, copyright 1997, says that they is “used to refer to the ones previously mentioned or implied.”

So, we can infer that the phrase and they gnawed their tongues for pain refers to a group of individuals who were previously mentioned in our foundation Scripture that are not all of the same sex but male and female. Thus, the people within the kingdom of the beast who are suffering and shall suffer from extreme moral, spiritual, and intellectual darkness shall gnaw their tongues for pain because of it.

How serious is it to gnaw at something? To gnaw according to the American Heritage Talking Dictionary and Thesaurus, copyright 1997, Computer Software, means “to afflict or worry persistently.” In the Merriam-Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software, gnaw is defined as “to be a source of vexation to.” And gnaw as established in the Random House Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, is “to trouble or torment by constant annoyance, worry, etc.”

Moving forward in our study, we learn that gnaw from the Greek dictionary in e-Sword, Computer Software, reference number 3145, is pronounced mas-sah'-om-ahee and means “to chew.” Chew as located in the Merriam-Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, means “to injure, destroy, or consume as if by chewing.” Also, to chew from the Microsoft Encarta Reference Library 2004, copyright 1993-2003, is “to gnaw at something repeatedly, usually causing damage.”

All of the aforementioned explanations allow us to conclude with certainty that because of punishment with severe moral and spiritual darkness and having to accept and deal with a president that is completely incompetent and inept, the persons within the governmental body of the beast shall afflict and worry him persistently. His lack of intelligence and brainpower shall cause the politicians and bureaucrats within his political administration to be a source of vexation to him.

They shall trouble and torment him constantly about their annoyance and worry with regard to his decision making and plans.

Moreover, to chew out, which comes from chew, means “to scold harshly; reprimand; and to rebuke severely.” Therefore, the president’s administration shall injure, destroy, and consume him and his administration as if by chewing. They shall gnaw at him and his administration repeatedly to the point of causing irreversible damage. This shall lead them to chew each other out by harsh scolding, reprimands and severe rebukes.

Not only that, throughout both of the current president’s terms his cabinet, committees, and councils have not only received but acted on faulty intelligence and information from the top agencies in this country such as, the C.I.A., N.S.A., Department of Homeland Security, FEMA and others. These agencies are supposedly some of the most reliable and dependable agencies in the world, however they are being exposed as incompetent. Since that is so, the absolute deficiency and absence of truthful and correct government procedure in this country has caused terrible repercussions to come upon America and its inhabitants. Nevertheless, it shall continue until our Father, יהוה, has brought this kingdom to total destruction and annihilation.

Our foundation research Scripture, Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 10 states that the current president and his administration shall “... gnaw their tongues for pain.” A tongue as established from the Merriam-Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software, is “the power of communication through speech.” In the Random House Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, a tongue is “the human tongue as the organ of speech.” From the same source in the Greek dictionary, number 1100 as gloce'-sah. Glōssa is defined as “a language;” while language is “abusive, violent, or profane utterance,” on the authority of American Heritage Talking Dictionary, copyright 1997, Computer Software.

Thus, it is apparent that the people who reside in the kingdom of the beast--the United States of America--shall become so full of moral and spiritual darkness that they shall intentionally seek to chew out, scold harshly, and severely rebuke their leader--the President--and their fellow U.S. administrators through language and utterances that are severely abusive, violent, and profane. They shall use their power of communication through speech by way of their physical tongues to inflict severe verbal backlash on each other.

The severely abusive and violent language that will be uttered by people living in the kingdom of the beast shall be the result of them being in excruciatingly advanced spiritual and mental pain and anguish. We can confirm this by going back to our previously trusted source of e-Sword, Computer Software, copyright 2000-2004, which gives the number for pain in the Greek dictionary under 4192, pronounced pon'-os. Ponos is described as “anguish.” It is soundly printed in Random House Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, copyright 1999, Software Edition, that pain is “mental or emotional suffering or torment.”

Therefore, we the children of יהוה, faithful followers of יהוה בן יהוה must continually and diligently keep our minds stayed on יהוה through daily study. If we do not, then we may be susceptible to the moral and spiritual darkness that shall be suffered by those who put their trust in the beast. We should not want to take part in the mental and emotional suffering and torment that has yet to be experienced by the people and citizens of this country and nation. Praise יהוה! Let us read First Samuel, Chapter 2, verses 9 and 10:

[9] “He will keep the feet of His saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

[10] The adversaries of the Lord, יהוה, shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall He thunder upon them: the Lord, יהוה, shall judge the ends of the earth; and He shall give strength unto His king, and exalt the horn of His anointed.”

Praise יהוה! Revelation, Chapter 16, verse 11 is a testimony as to why this plague shall be carried out and explains why its recipients shall receive the recompense of יהוה through this fifth plague in its full totality. Let us read:

“And blasphemed the God, יהוה, of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.”

Praise יהוה! In today’s discussion, we came to learn the fate and doom that shall come specifically upon the kingdom of the beast--the United States of America. We also gained enlightenment on exactly how its inhabitants will undergo and endure the divine plague of יהוה that shall be meted out by his fifth angel in the series of seven angels who possess the catastrophic seven last plagues.

I thank my Father, יהוה, once again for allowing me the privilege to stand and present some of the knowledge found in His Word. I am always happy and delighted to see all of you who are true believers and faithful witnesses of the Son of יהוה, our everlasting Messiah, יהוה בן יהוה by keeping His laws and observing His sacred ordinances. Enjoy the remainder of our Twenty-Sixth Annual Feast of Weeks. Shalom Aleichem!
